ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS DECISION¹

Petitioner, Beth Daehler, as representative of her daughter, Victoria Daehler, and respondent filed a joint status report regarding attorney's fees and costs on July 11, 2007. In this report, petitioner and respondent agreed upon a total of $7,000.00 in attorney's fees and $1,000.00 in attorney's costs. Additionally, petitioner filed a statement of costs in compliance with General Order No. 9, stating that she incurred no litigation costs.

After reviewing the request, the court awards $8,000.00 in attorney's fees and other litigation costs. The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.

¹ The undersigned intends to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims's website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002). As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party (1) that is trade secret or commercial or financial information and is privileged or confidential, or (2) that are medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise, "the entire" decision will be available to the public. Id.

² Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.
